

IMPROVING PERFORMANCE AT THE NEXUS OF THE COMMERCIAL AND SOCIAL SECTORS

ABSTRACT

CATHOLIC PRIESTS SITTING ON NON-PROFIT BOARDS (APRIL 2017)

---

Nonprofits play an important role in maintaining society's quality of life. A strong Board of Directors is one of the most critical ways for a nonprofit to sustain its capacity and ensure its long-term success. Having a Board that includes people who are well known and respected in the community as a whole or in specific parts of the community, for example, the clergy, raises the credibility of the organization. It aids in legitimizing organization at large and its know-how. The Most Reverend Albert LeGatt, The Most Reverend Arthur J. Serratelli, The Most Reverend Edward J. Burns and John Corriveau [Bishop of Nelson (Canada) retired February 2018] are among many other Catholic clergy sitting on the boards of nonprofits.

