

IMPROVING PERFORMANCE AT THE NEXUS OF THE COMMERCIAL AND SOCIAL SECTORS

ABSTRACT

FORMER CREDIT RATING AGENCY SOVEREIGN RATING PROFESSIONALS
(NOVEMBER 2016)

Among several other credit rating professions discovered in the present research, David Beers was global head of S&P's sovereign and international public finance ratings, managing a global team of analysts that assigned credit ratings to more than 600 national, regional, and local governments, multilateral development banks and government-related entities. Ian Linnell, as Global Analytical Head at Fitch Ratings, oversaw ratings and research for all sectors including Corporate Finance, Financial Institutions, U.S. Public Finance and Global Infrastructure and Project Finance. Laura J. Feinland Katz, was a Senior Criteria Officer, and Chief Credit Officer for Latin America at S&P and oversaw the global criteria development and approval for government ratings sectors, including Sovereign Ratings, Public Finance, and Government-Related Entities.

