

IMPROVING PERFORMANCE AT THE NEXUS OF THE COMMERCIAL AND SOCIAL SECTORS

ABSTRACT

LISBON HIGH-END REAL ESTATE, RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL, FOR THE FOLLOWING KEY NEIGHBORHOODS OF THE CITY: ESTRELA, CAMPO DE
OURIQUE, LAPA, PRINCIPE REAL (JANUARY 2019)

Lisbon provides high quality of life with low crime rates, mild temperatures, and a relaxing lifestyle. After a migration to the suburbs in the 1970s, which left the historic center largely abandoned, Lisbon is once again attracting new residents. Mostly upper-middle class singles and many foreigners, mainly from other European countries, are moving to Lisbon. While new and renovated homes in the center of the city are expensive for most locals, foreigners find luxury apartments at a half or a third of the price of their home cities. Estrela, Campo de Ourique, Lapa and Príncipe Real are some of the central districts that are among the best neighborhoods to live in Lisbon.
